

"Planning for the Future: White Paper – August 2020 and Changes to the Planning System – reforms to the Planning system to streamline and modernise – but what might that mean in practice?"

by

Sandra Manson, Senior Director, Pegasus Group

The much heralded, headline grabbing reform documents proposed by the Government – Planning for the Future and Changes to the current Planning System are out for consultation. The proposals include a raft of changes to how the system works with the emphasis on streamlining the system. Pegasus Group will provide an overview of the proposals and some thought leadership on what the implications may be in the North East, for developers, consultants and the development sector as a whole.

Sandra has an extensive knowledge and experience in the planning field, working across a range of sectors including residential, commercial and leisure, advising both private and public sector clients, and will be joined by relevant experts from Pegasus Group to discuss the plethora of changes proposed.
